*“He said to them, “The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few.”
(Luke 10:2)*

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. These gifts, called charisms, can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and want to share that joy. Discern how God is calling YOU to use your charisms. No one else has the same gifts from God as you! Say “YES” to what God is calling you to do, and then do it! Share your joy!! Invite others to do the same!

This meditation illustrates exactly what happened at Vacation Bible School last week. Many gifts (charisms) were needed to make this a successful, fun, learning experience for our children - those who are good at decorating, those who can prepare snacks, those who can lead groups, those who can sing – and dance!

Thank you to Jessie for “sharing her joy, and inviting others to do the same!”
